NARRATIVE:

David Carnes has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14 years of age, vehicle theft, violation of parole, burglary, failure to register as a sex offender, vandalism and possession of controlled substances. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14 years. Carnes was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 01, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Carnes qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failure to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
